1. General S. H. Spoor, of the Royal Netherlands Indonesian Army (RNIA), will leave for the Netherlands soon, because Viscount Field Marshal Montgomery, Chairman of the Committee of Commanders in Chief of the Permanent Defense Council of the Western European Union, has stated that 80,000 men of the Royal Netherlands Army now in Java and Sumatra should be withdrawn and returned to the Netherlands for defensive purposes under the Western European Union.
2. General Spoor will have to explain the following:
 - (a) The chaos in Java and Sumatra after the launching of the second military action
 - (b) The alleged atrocities committed against 200 sleeping Tentara Nasional Indonesia (TNI) men in Jogjakarta
 - (c) The complete weakness of the Dutch defense of Malang, East Java, Solo, Salatiga and Jogjakarta in Middle Java, and all small towns in north-western and Central Java, and the ineffectiveness of the "C" Division in West Java.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
